Transition Agreement or the Fourth Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement which are discussed below. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over those claims under 28 U.S.C. §1332.

3. Paul Walter Pocalyko is an individual who currently and at all times relevant to this action was a resident of Maple Glen, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. At the time his employment was terminated by Baker Tilly he was 54 years old.
4. Baker Tilly Virchow Crouse, LLP (“Baker Tilly”) is a limited liability partnership organized under the laws of Illinois, whose principal place of business is Chicago, Illinois.
5. Baker Tilly has offices in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and all or substantially all of the events and conduct from which this action arises occurred within the geographical boundaries of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Therefore, venue is proper.
6. Pocalyko is a licensed Certified Public Accountant. From April 26, 2001 through September 29, 2014, Pocalyko was an equity partner at the accounting firm of ParenteBeard LLP and its predecessor Parente Randolph LLP, and was based at its Philadelphia, Pennsylvania office.
7. During his tenure at the Parente entities Pocalyko practiced in the firms’ Forensic Litigation and Valuation Services (“FLVS”) group.

8. At all times relevant to this action, by virtue of the amount of their collective equity interest Jeffrey L. Ferro, Robert J. Ciaruffoli, and Robert J. Radics were the controlling members of ParenteBeard.
9. Beginning in 2013 Ferro, Ciaruffoli, and Radics entered into negotiations with Baker Tilly for the purpose of combining the practices of ParenteBeard and Baker Tilly. Ultimately the firms agreed to merge effective October 1, 2014, under the Baker Tilly name. Although denominated a merger, in practical effect the combination constituted in large part an acquisition by Baker Tilly of ParenteBeard's clients and goodwill.
10. As part of the merger Ferro and Ciaruffoli became "Common Equity Holders" and members of the Board of Directors of Baker Tilly.
11. Prior to October 1, 2014, Ferro and Ciaruffoli met with Pocalyko to persuade Pocalyko to join the merged firms. In so doing Ferro and Ciaruffoli acted as agents for Baker Tilly. They represented to Pocalyko, inter alia, that his compensation at Baker Tilly would be at least equal to that he was then receiving at ParenteBeard. That representation eventually proved to be false.
12. In reliance on the representations of Ferro and Ciaruffoli, Pocalyko agreed to join Baker Tilly as a "Preferred Equity Holder" and signed a Joinder and Transition Agreement. Although "Preferred Equity Holders" were characterized as "Partners" they were essentially employees who had no vote on decisions affecting Baker Tilly and no interest in the firm's net profits. The Joinder and Transition Agreement provided that Pocalyko agreed to be bound by the terms of the Fourth Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement of Baker Tilly dated as of June 1, 2014. That Agreement included, inter alia, a Covenant Not to Compete with Baker Tilly for two years after one ceased to be a Baker Tilly partner.

13. Prior to the merger of Baker Tilly and ParenteBeard, Pocalyko held an $117,600 equity interest on ParenteBeard. As part of the merger $100,000 of that amount was transferred to Baker Tilly pursuant to the Joinder and Transition agreement. The balance of Pocalyko's equity interest was paid to him. Had Pocalyko not been induced by Ferro and Ciaruffoli to join Baker Tilly his entire equity interest in ParenteBeard would have been paid to him on or after October 1, 2014.
14. Prior to the merger Pocalyko held a partially vested interest in the ParenteBeard Retirement and Separation Agreement. Pocalyko's interest had a gross Redemption Value of approximately $400,000. Had Pocalyko not been induced by Ferro and Ciaruffoli to join Baker Tilly, after October 1, 2014, he had would have been begun receiving monthly payments under the Retirement and Separation Agreement in the amounts and over the period of time specified by the Agreement until his vested interest was paid to him in full.

15. As part of the merger between Baker Tilly and ParenteBeard, Baker Tilly became legally responsible for ParenteBeard's obligations to Pocalyko under the Retirement and Separation Agreement.
16. Shortly before October 1, 2014, a number of ParenteBeard partners and employees, were either terminated by or coerced into leaving ParenteBeard. All or most of these individuals are believed to have been more than 40 years of age.
17. After October 1, 2014, a number of former ParenteBeard partners and employees, were either terminated from or coerced into leaving Baker Tilly. All or most of these individuals are believed to have been more than 40 years of age.
18. From October 1, 2014 through February, 2015, Pocalyko's compensation was the same as it had been at ParenteBeard.
19. Tony Fuller was Pocalyko's supervisor at Baker Tilly.
20. On November 19, 2014, Fuller asked Pocalyko: "How old are you, and how long do you plan to continue doing this work?"
21. After the merger Baker Tilly's FLVS group struggled to meet income projections due to a number of factors, none of which were attributable to a lack of competence or diligence on the part of Pocalyko or other members of the FLVS group. To the contrary the problems resulted from management decisions of Baker Tilly.

22. In March, 2015, Pocalyko and other FLVS group members were informed by Fuller that their annual compensation was being reduced and that they were required to repay Baker Tilly the amounts by which they were “overdrawn”. Pocalyko’s annual pay was to be reduced by $168,229 and he was to repay Baker Tilly $112,153 by May 31, 2015 as means of Baker Tilly retroactively imposing the reduction in pay.
23. The FLVS group was assigned a new budget that it was to achieve by May 31, 2015.
24. As the result of the efforts of Pocalyko and the other members of the FLVS group on June 3, 2015, Fuller informed the FLVS group that their estimated revenue numbers exceeded the new budget and congratulated them on the team effort which allowed them to do so.
25. On September 29, 2015 Fuller informed Pocalyko that Baker Tilly was terminating his employment.
26. Thereafter all of Pocalyko’s work was reassigned to, David Duffus, a younger Baker Tilly partner who is believed to have been forty-eight years old at that time. As the result of his lower rate of compensation and due to the fact that

Baker Tilly was responsible for significantly less in ParenteBeard legacy financial obligations to Mr. Duffus than it owed to Pocalyko, Baker Tilly realized a substantial financial benefit by terminating Pocalyko and redirecting his work to Mr. Duffus.

27. Since terminating Pocalyko Baker Tilly has refused to pay approximately $35,000 of Pocalyko's capital contribution to Baker Tilly despite demands by Pocalyko that it do so.
28. After initially making a few payments to Pocalyko under the Retirement and Separation Agreement Baker Tilly has ceased making payments despite demands by Pocalyko that it do so.
29. From March, 2015, through the date that his employment by Baker Tilly was terminated Baker Tilly failed to pay Pocalyko based on the annual compensation to which he was entitled in accordance with representations of Ciaruffalo and Ferro.

COUNT ONE--ADEA

29. Plaintiff was over forty years old at the time Baker Tilly terminated his employment and similarly situated younger persons such as Mr. Duffus were not terminated.

30. On February 12, 2016, Plaintiff filed a charge of age discrimination against Baker Tilly with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. The EEOC issued Plaintiff a right to sue letter on June 14, 2016.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that judgment be entered in his favor for all relief available to him under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, punitive damages, and attorneys' fees, plus costs

COUNT TWO--Breach of Contract

31. Defendant has breached its contract with Plaintiff by failing to pay him for his services of the rate which Ferro and Ciaruffoli represented that he would be paid during the entire period that he was employed by Baker Tilly.
32. Defendant has breached its contract with Plaintiff by failing to pay him his entire capital contribution.
33. Defendant has breached its contract with Plaintiff by failing to pay him the amounts to which he is entitled under the Retirement and Separation Agreement.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that judgment be entered in his favor for an amount in excess of $75,000, plus interest and costs.

COUNT THREE--Conversion

34. By failing to pay Plaintiff his entire capital contribution and the amounts to which he is entitled under the Retirement and Separation Agreement Defendant has converted property which belongs to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that judgment be entered in his favor for an amount in excess of $75,000, plus interest and costs.

COUNT FOUR--Promissory Estoppel

35. Plaintiff detrimentally relied on the representations of Baker Tilly and its agents regarding his compensation and payment by Baker Tilly of his capital contribution and amounts to which he was entitled under the Retirement and Separation Agreement.

36. Were it not for those representations Plaintiff would have been able to secure alternative employment with another entity at rate equal to or greater than his promised compensation at Baker Tilly, would have been paid his entire ParenteBeard equity interest, and would have begun receiving payments under the Retirement and Separation Agreement.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that judgment be entered in his favor for an amount in excess of $75,000, plus interest and costs.

COUNT FIVE--Declaratory Judgment

37. As the result of Baker Tilly's failure to perform in accordance with the aforesaid representations Plaintiff's undertakings under the Joinder and Transition Agreement fail for lack of consideration.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the Court to declare that he is not bound by the terms of the Joinder and Transition Agreement or the Fourth Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement of Baker Tilly dated as of June 1, 2014.
